OPEN TO ALL MAJORS (EXCEPT ENGLISH)

The Minor in English – 12 credits

According to the Undergraduate Bulletin 2015-2017

The Minor in English consists of four courses totaling 12 credits, planned as one of three options listed below. ENG 111 and ENG 121 do not count toward the Minor in English. The English Minor is open to all majors (except English).

Literature Minor (12 credits)

Students must take one 200-level ENG course (3 credits) and three 300/400-level ENG courses (9 credits). One 300/400-level ENW course in Writing may be substituted for a 300/400-level ENG course in Literature.

Professional Writing Minor (12 credits)

Students must take ENW 217 (Editing and Proofreading, 3 credits) and two of the following ENW courses (3 credits each): ENW 303 (Creative Nonfiction Writing), ENW 304 (Nonprofit Grant Writing), ENW 305 (Professional Writing). The fourth course may be any 300/400-level elective in Professional Writing, Creative Writing, or Literature (3 credits).

Creative Writing Minor (12 credits)

Students must take ENW 210 (Introduction to Creative Writing, 3 credits) and two of the following three ENW courses (3 credits each): ENW 301 (Poetry Writing), ENW 302 (Fiction Writing), ENW 308 (Playwriting). The fourth course may be any 300/400-level elective in Creative Writing, Professional Writing, or Literature (3 credits).

OPEN TO ALL MAJORS, INCLUDING ENGLISH

Professional Communications Minor – 13 credits

According to the Undergraduate Bulletin 2015-2017

In addition to the 12-credit English Minors in Literature, Professional Writing, and Creative Writing, students have the option of the 13-credit Interdisciplinary Minor in Professional Communications. The Minor is open to all majors, including English.

The Professional Communications Minor provides students with the opportunity to develop high-level skills in multimedia communications. These professional communications skills are increasingly and urgently required by businesses, public sector and non-governmental organizations, and in the fields of healthcare and science. A range of relevant courses enables students to hone their skills in professional writing, using both traditional formats and new media platforms, and to prepare and deliver in-person and web-based presentations. The 13-credit Minor is designed for students majoring in various departments within the Schools of Arts and Humanities, Social and Natural Sciences, and Nursing and Health Sciences. These majors include but are not limited to English, Multimedia Journalism, Computer Graphics and Imaging, Business Administration, Health Services Education and Promotion, Health Services Administration, and Nursing. Students from any department seeking to burnish their professional writing and presentation skills for the twenty-first-century marketplace will find the Minor in Professional Communications an invaluable complement to their chosen major.

Degree Requirements

Undergraduate students may declare the Minor in Professional Communications upon successful completion of ENG 111 and ENG 121. Students satisfy the requirements for the 13-credit Professional Communications Minor by taking four courses, three of which are at the 300-level.

ENGLISH MAJOR + EDUCATION MINOR

Teacher of English

According to the Undergraduate Bulletin 2015-2017

English Majors who are also Minors in Early Childhood and Childhood Education (ECCE) or Middle and High School Education (MHSE) must fulfill the requirements of a 40-43-credit English Major in Literature, Professional Writing, or Creative Writing, regardless of whether or not they are pursuing certification.

Education Minors who receive certification as undergraduates may pursue an M.A. in English.

Education Minors who do not receive certification as undergraduates may pursue an M.S. in Education.

Students interested in becoming teachers should consult the Office of the Dean of Education for the latest information on New York State requirements for teacher certification.
